About The International Federation of Interior Architects/Designers (IFI)

The International Federation of Interior Architects/Designers (IFI) is the global voice and authority for professional Interior Architects/Designers. As the singular Federation of Associations, IFI acts as a global forum for the exchange and development of professional practice, knowledge and experience, along with education, research and design advocacy worldwide. IFI connects the international community to further the impact, influence and application of the design of interiors, promote social responsibility, and raise the global status of the profession. A not-for-profit, founded in 1963, IFI expands the international network of professional Interior Architects/Designers.

IFI Membership Benefits

Value

Becoming a member ensures that your association is part of the only global voice and authority that strengthens the role of our profession at a worldwide level. IFI membership implies alignment to IFI and its mission, gaining global professional recognition and use of the IFI appellation for your organization. Belonging to the highest authority and federating body of Interior Architecture/Design is the ultimate recognition of your association’s legitimacy and commitment to further and improve the profession.

Relevance & Responsibility

Your membership with IFI demonstrates your understanding about the critical relevance and responsibility of the Interior Architect/Designer and the fundamental role they have in the way that every human being experiences life. As the only global forum of its kind, your membership with IFI allows you to make an immediate and historic impact on our profession.

Showcase your Association through Innovative Programs

Members receive preferential support to participate in our worldwide programs, getting involved in a range of regular and cutting-edge events, including:

- IFI World Interiors Day (WID): The only annual celebration of Interior Architecture/Design at a global level, it provides your association with the opportunity to share the unique talents, understandings, creativity and design innovation of your members and to gather support from the public at large
- IFI World Interiors for the Next Generation (WING) Competition: These worldwide Young Designer/Student design awards are juried by Design icons of the industry from around the world and help develop the necessary content, thinking and talent for the profession's future
- IFI Interiors Declaration Adoptions: Raise awareness and acknowledgement of the Interiors in your city/country through this exclusive IFI advocacy program, supporting legislation of the profession at a local level

Connect with the Worldwide Community

Join our international network of Interiors and build strategic partnerships and connections. As a part of IFI, you will have the opportunity to participate at regional meetings and events held around the world, offering the chance to not only engage internationally in meetings, workshops and symposiums, but to also network in a social capacity.

The IFI General Assembly, held biennially, is the highest governing authority of IFI, attended by IFI's Executive Board, IFI Past Presidents, members and external stakeholders to discuss the programs and projects of IFI over the past board term, as well as outline and plan for initiatives to be undertaken around the world over the coming new term.

International Visibility

IFI helps its members promote their work and accomplishments by featuring them regularly on the IFI website and including them in the exclusive IFI Member Directory, both online and in print in the IFI Board Report. Members are also highlighted through social media and newsletters.

Dedicated Information & Communications

Members receive exclusive materials and communications, keeping up-to-date with all the latest news and events relevant to the international community of Interiors. IFI's unique President's Message, published monthly in an electronic format brings ideas and philosophies, as well as, provocations and reporting of topical issues under discussion around the world. It also showcases and celebrates associations, their members and other design leaders in our global community.

Promotional Member - Definition and Criteria

Category represents promotional organizations such as design centers, museums, trade shows, exhibition venues, expositions and award programs which contribute to the promotion and advancement of professional designers, and to raising awareness for communication of design and design standards.
